Fireworks and Dancing to be July 4 Features

Enjoyable Program Is Expected to Attract Many Visitors Here

Enthusiastic over the success of last year's Fourth of July celebration in Antioch, which drew hundreds of visitors here, business men of the village are co-operating with the Lions club in plans to assure an equally successful affair this year.

Fireworks and dancing in the evening will climax the day's events.

The fireworks will include both the ground and the aerial types, and will be set off from the hill behind the village park.

For the dancing, the outdoor dance floor belonging to the Lions club will be set up, and music will be broadcast over a loudspeaker system.

Expenses for the celebration are being met by voluntary donations on the part of the business men of the village.

The committee includes O. E. Haehnle, Robert King, Walter Scott, Roman Vos, and Herman Holbek, assisted by others.

Virag - Nango to Headline Wrestling Bill at Grayslake

With summer officially announced, the wrestling season will swing into its full stride Friday night, June 27, with the third weekly show at Peg's arena, located at routes 120 and 45 in Grayslake. Eddie Virag, popular Hungarian from Minneapolis, who staged a blitzkrieg on Von Schach last week, will meet Nango Singh, Hindu heavyweight. Singh, a newcomer to the mat wars of Lake county, introduced himself in whirlwind style, by taming the rough and tough Gorilla Grubmyer in short order, last Friday at Grayslake. He outwrestled the ferocious Gorilla which is no mean feat in itself, and after having him tamed down to the status of a grind organ operator's helper, applied his cobra neck lock, which is a new version of Jim Londo's unconscionable hold. Grubmyer needed the assistance of several helpers to leave the ring.

The semi-windup is a match between Karol Krauser, the Polish champion, and Jim McMillen of Antioch. Those boys met at Grayslake in a match last season which ended in a draw, although many thought Krauser had McMillen pinned during one of the high spots of the fracas.

Seville Samara, giant Negro athlete will take on Michael Leone, of Italy in one of the supporting matches. Samara has appeared in Lake County rings on several occasions and has always seemed well able to take care of himself in any sort of competition. Leone has had an impressive record in Eastern ring battles, and comes to the midwest well recommended, both in this country and in Europe.

Another new comer is Ned Taylor of Columbus, Ohio, who is paired with Bill Brooks, of New York. Although the supporting card gives promise of many thrills the real interest lies in the Virag-Singh match in which Delhi, India's finest clashes with Hungary's best.

Peg Behning is having another set of bleacher seats erected this week to relieve the congestion.

Chain O'Lakes is Scene of Several Golf Tournaments

Tournament season is on at the Chain O'Lakes golf course, Fred Hawkins, manager and professional reports.

Sunday, the Waukegan City club held its annual spring tournament at Chain O'Lakes. Howard Guthrie captured honors with a 79.

Two groups held tournaments Saturday, employees of the Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago, and of the Victor Adding machine company, Chicago. There were 125 in the Abbott group and 75 in the Victor party.

Lumber and coal dealers from as far north in Wisconsin as Milwaukee, as far west in Illinois as Rockford, and as far east as the western part of Indiana were present at the semi-annual Lumbermen's tournament held all day Thursday, June 19. A noon luncheon was served at the clubhouse to 115, and 160 sat down to a steak dinner in the evening.

The lumbermen hold a tournament at Chain O'Lakes early in the season each year, and another one in the fall.

All material for advertisements and news items should be brought in as early as possible, and co-operation along this line will be greatly appreciated.

Von Holwede Receives "Limited Certificate"

Future over Case Is Condemned by All Sides as Against School's Interest

A limited state special certificate in German and music was conceded to Hans Von Holwede, Antioch Township High school teacher by the state examining board in a two-hour session at Springfield last Thursday. A special certificate enables an instructor to teach only the subject for which the certificate is given and is granted in cases where a person desiring to teach lacks adequate general qualifications.

Von Holwede had been re-hired by the Antioch High school April 23, over the protests of a number of taxpayers who felt that his services to the school were not sufficient to compensate for his previous yearly salary of $2,325 from the high school (he receives an additional salary of $450 a year from the grade school) and his use of school rooms and facilities in giving private lessons. His salary from the high school was, however, reduced to $2,000 for the coming year. That from the grade school remained unchanged.

Von Holwede's large salary was one of the points of criticism on the part of those who were opposed to his being re-hired, and who declared that it was "out of line" in comparison with those of other teachers who are called on for far more teaching time and lesson preparation, and have made considerably more expensive investments in education and training. His salary was the largest, with one exception, paid to any teacher at the school. The other salary was, however, paid partly by the state, so that the entire expense does not fall on the local district.

A considerable amount of "politics" was brought into the case from start to finish, and not always with regard to the better interests of pupils or the school, according to testimony of James McMillen, influential member of the high school board who was present at the hearing.

C. H. Engle, secretary of the state examining board, hedged the board's granting of a special certificate to Von Holwede with the statement that since the University of Illinois' office of high school visitors had not challenged the evaluation Von Holwede himself had set on credits he had earned at a German seminary (corresponding to an American academy or high school), the examining board did not want to make a retroactive ruling.

During the hearing, which a number of Antioch people attended, W. C. Petty, Lake county superintendent of schools, was accused of negligence in overlooking the fact that Von Holwede was permitted to teach for seven years without qualifying for a certificate of any kind, and of blocking efforts to have Von Holwede meet requirements.

It has been conceded by all parties that Von Holwede, regardless of whatever qualifications he may or may not possess, is personally popular with students and patrons of the school, as well as disinterested parties. Notwithstanding, it is pointed out by persons interested in maintaining high standards of education in the schools, personality alone does not make for a qualified teacher. Both opponents and proponents of Von Holwede have stated that it is regrettable that elements of personal friendship or animosity should have been brought in, and pressure brought to bear, on what was begun as a routine search by the local school board into the qualifications of the only teacher in the high school whose credits were not available and on file at the school for examination.

Two Antioch Boys High in State Judging Contest

Ward has just been received by C. L. Kutil, vocational agriculture instructor of the Antioch high school, that two members of the Antioch teams placed high in the recent state judging contest at the University of Illinois.

Out of the 600 boys competing in the dairy division, Lawrence Keisler placed ninth and receives a large ribbon as a reward for his ability to judge dairy cattle. Last year he placed fourth which indicates real consistency in judging.

Milton Smith, competing against 400 boys in the poultry division, placed twenty-first with a score of 728 out of a possible 800.

The boys were accompanied by Kutil on their trip to the contest.

Felter's Assn. Plans 3rd Annual Picnic July 4 - 5

Organization Is 4 Years Old; Renders Important Community Service

The third annual picnic of Felter's Association at Lake Catherine a mile west of Antioch, will be held on July 4 and 5 in the south park at the subdivision, according to an announcement made by members and officers of the group this week.

Detailed announcement of the annual gathering is carried in an advertisement of the event on page 8 of this edition of the News.

Charles Groth, past president of the association, who is chairman of the picnic committee, in behalf of the membership, extends a cordial welcome to all to attend.

There will be many special entertainment features, games, swimming, free dancing, and refreshments.

Organized in 1937.

Organized in September, 1937, by 250 property owners, Felter's Association has been active in making extensive developments and plans for the improvement of the entire property which comprise more than 100 acres on the southeast shore of Lake Catherine.

The board of directors, officers and members have worked diligently to develop and improve the rapidly growing community, which is one of the most beautiful and best improved subdivisions in the entire lake region.

Notable among the improvements are the well improved and well maintained roads, the planting of shrubbery and trees, improvements of the two parks owned by the association by fencing the parks and building new piers. Drainage systems have been installed throughout the subdivision, with numerous catch-basins, and ornamental street signs have been installed.

By-Laws Govern

Under the by-laws of the association adopted in 1937, a wise provision was made by the organizers which prohibits commitments of any kind to be incurred by the association unless funds are in the treasury. A financial report is rendered each year and copies are distributed to members. The association operates on a strict budget and all bills are paid promptly.

The present officers of the organization are Hans F. Trepte, president; Ray Freeman, vice president; Harold Wilson, secretary; and Carl B. Doty, treasurer. Meetings are held regularly by the officers and the board of directors, when affairs of the association are discussed—the group being ever on the alert for the formulating of plans for further development.

Burlington Legion Plans July Jamboree

You have heard them many times on the radio, and the management of the July Jamboree is happy to announce now that you will be able to see them in person at the July Jamboree in Burlington.

Arrangements have been made for the appearance of a number of WLS Radio Stars in free entertainments at the Jamboree on July 3 and 4. On the evening of July 3rd, the opening night of the Jamboree, those in attendance will be entertained by a galaxy of WLS stars, including those "Barn Dance" favorites: The Prairie Sweethearts, Jimmy James, and Uncle Tom Corwin.

On the Fourth, both afternoon and evening, the WLS Rangers, premiere musical organizations of the WLS National Barn Dance, will entertain.

The management feels that with the big merchandise exhibit, the entertainment features, the rides, the fireworks, a good ball game, and the WLS entertainment, they are this year offering the public the best July Jamboree ever presented.

Antioch 4-H Members To Attend State Camp

The Antioch 4-H softball team, under the supervision of C. L. Kutil, defeated the Lake Zurich 4-H squad by a score of 18-3 Friday evening, at Lake Zurich.

Ed Dunford pitched for Antioch, allowing one hit, while striking out sixteen.

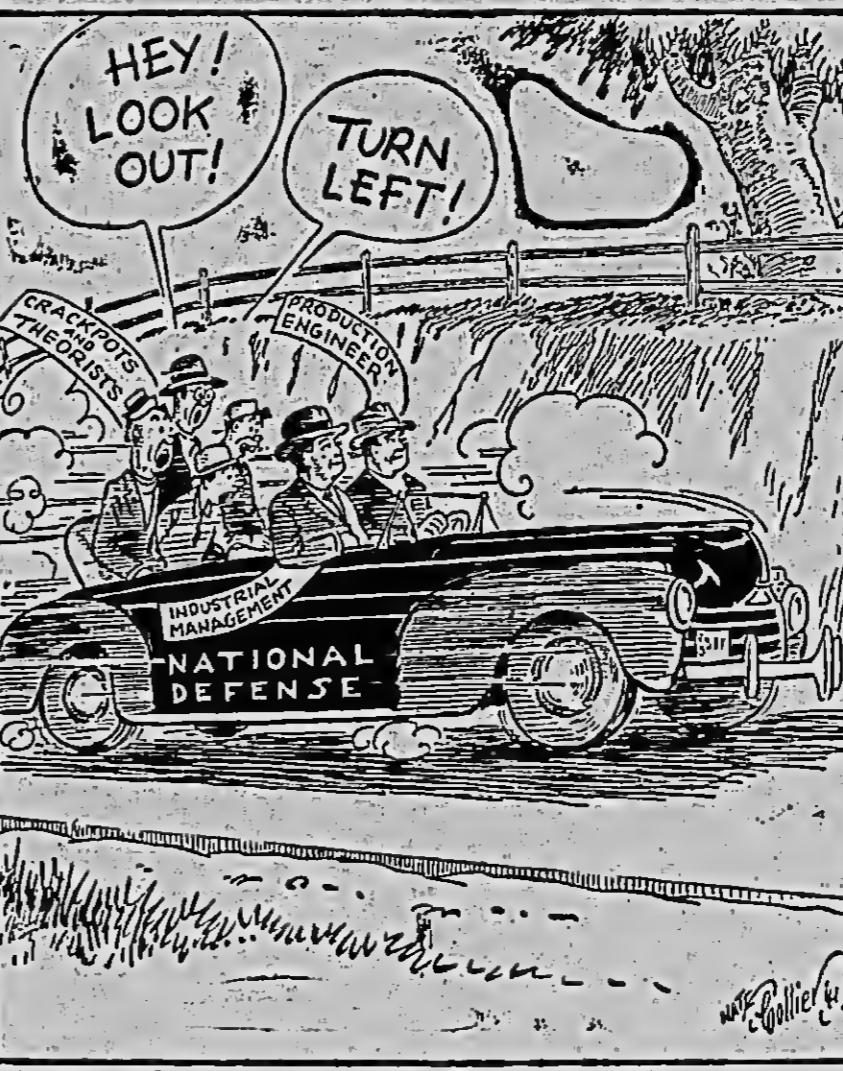

The Antioch team is scheduled to play Wauconda June 30, at Wauconda.

ROUND THE LAKES

W. J. Rebsamen of the Rebsamen & Almeroth Co., Chicago, and 40 of his guests were entertained at the Roundup Sunday. Other guests from Chicago were Mr. and Mrs. William Loescher and G. Zollinger.

The Antioch Lions club will be entertained at the Roundup Monday, June 30. They will hold installation of officers. Robert King will be installed as president.

NO BACKSEAT DRIVERS NEEDED

U. S. Calls on Hens

To Aid Our Defense

"Food for defense!" Poultry and eggs have just been earmarked by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard as one of the essential commodities in this national emergency. To meet the requirements for national defense, 300,000,000 dozen extra eggs are needed this year—and work must be started right away by aggressive poultry raisers if the nation's flocks are to lay

The Government's request is so urgent that it is stabilizing egg prices—assuring egg producers a base price of 22c a dozen (Chicago market); which will mean relatively higher prices in markets normally higher than Chicago, until June 1943. A guarantee of a profitable base price, plus the challenge of Secretary Wickard to produce for national defense, make two mighty good reasons for local egg producers to do their very best to produce their share of the 300,000,000 extra dozen eggs that are needed.

In his recent announcement, Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard says, "Poultry producers need to feed for more egg production from present flocks. It will, we feel, be profitable to do so. Feed supplies are plentiful. We are going to release loan corn at the loan rate plus carrying charges. We are going to support egg prices at a long term average of 22 cents, Chicago basis. There is every reason to feed now on heavy egg production."

"I have every confidence that farm men—and farm women, too, will step up feeding for egg production now." According to our local Purina dealer, the Antioch Milling company, it will be necessary for local flock owners to start as many chicks as they can this spring and summer if they are to fill their houses to capacity in the fall. He says these chicks should be given a good start through proper feeding, sanitation and care, and then kept growing rapidly throughout the summer.

The program is scheduled to get under way at 10 a.m. with the classification of the cattle by R. W. Stumpf, fieldman for the Wisconsin State Dairymen's Association and A. O. Lehman, Extension dairyman at the University of Wisconsin.

Free Holstein milk will be available during the picnic dinner hour. Refreshments will be served on the grounds.

The afternoon program will consist of adult and junior judging contests, showmanship contests, and other forms of entertainment.

All members of the Kenosha Co. Dairy Herd Improvement association are urged to be present and participate in the D. H. I. judging contest. Arrangements will be made later to judge other breeds after which a three-man team from each association is to be selected to represent it at the State contest to be held during the 1941 Wisconsin State Fair.

The implement dealers of Kenosha county will exhibit a line of the latest farm and dairy equipment.

One of the highlights of the program will be the awarding of $100.00 in attending prizes, which includes the Registered Holstein Heifer calf from the Biehn Bros. herd at Union Grove.

The program of events will be completed with a Black and White dance in the evening at the Bristol Community hall.

A registered Holstein bull calf, from the herd of B. J. Gillmore and sons will be given away as an attendance prize at the dance.

E. V. Ryall, County Agricultural agent; Minnie Frey, assistant county agent; and Marlin Schnurr, principal of the Union Free High school at Wilmot, are assisting the various committees and officers of the association stage the show.

The following breeders of Holstein cattle will exhibit at the show:

Joe Groff & Sons; Wm. Barthel & Sons; Earl Torrey & Sons; Charles Schultz; Henry Richter; Biehn Bros.; Earl Quirk; B. J. Gillmore & Sons; Roy J. Krieschner; Harry Hansen; Powell & Gillmore; Ferguson & Phillips Farms; Nathan Westcott; Erwin Price; Ralph Weiland; Horace B. Fowler; Clausen Bros.

An invitation is being extended to all farm and city folks to be at the show. A registered Holstein Heifer calf purchased from the Biehn Bros. farm at Union Grove, Wis., will be one of the awards at the show. The sire of the calf is King Vevie Wintethur, Kolauntha, 786,383, a son of the noted Holstein bull Wintethur Dad Acne Kohintha 61,009. Her dam is Frebie Ana Wew Wonder, with a D. H. I. A. record of 10970 lbs. milk and 421.7 lbs. butter fat as a two year old in 348 days, two daily milkings.

Firemen Highly Complimented on County Meeting

Gala "Mardi Gras" After-ward Is Attended by over 2,000 Persons

Members of the Antioch fire department are still receiving compliments upon the outstanding success of the June meeting of the Lake County Firemen's association, to which they were hosts Monday evening for the fourth consecutive year.

It is estimated that about 250 men from other counties as well as Lake county members were invited and many attended the meeting and the Mardi Gras celebration that followed.

More than 2,000 enjoyed the street dancing, free refreshments and other features of the social part of the evening.

Roy W. Alsip, Champaign fire chief and secretary of the Illinois State Firemen's association, spoke at the business meeting held in Guild hall, discussing legislative matters of special interest to firemen.

Name Committee
At Alsip's request, the county group authorized Norman Conrad, president, to appoint two men to a committee which will seek to formulate a new firemen's pension bill to present to the state legislature in place of the one recently tabled.

Former President Charles Buerger and Noel White, both of Fox Lake, were appointed by Conrad to the committee.

A talk given on the use of traction splints in first aid work was given by Arthur LaCrosse of Kenosha, who has been instrumental in building up interest in Red Cross first aid work in the middle west, and gave generous assistance in the founding of the Antioch rescue squad, which originated under the auspices of the fire department.

Dancing was enjoyed on a waxed canvas spread on Main street, with music supplied over a loudspeaker system.

Two hundred loaves of bread, three hundred pounds of meat—this gives a faint idea of the refreshments that were served to the crowd, in the old laundry building, formerly occupied by the Chevrolet garage.

The refreshments included two barrels of root beer for the children.

The generous donations of food and other materials on the part of local merchants were given much credit by the firemen for the success of the affair.

"With everybody helping to co-operate, we couldn't help but put it over," was their consensus of opinion.

"Out to Lunch"

France perished still observing a government enforced "two hour noon hour." Her people were "out to lunch" socially, economically, politically and militarily when the Germans marched in. This is the only possible conclusion to be drawn from news reports, and in them lies an eternal warning for America.

France carried "social reform" to the point of national decay. Politically we have been following a parallel path. We too have been chasing rainbows of unreasoned reform surrounded by burgeoning bureaucracy, skyrocketing debt, and crumbling initiative.

The world owes no one a living. The impact of realism, not Hitler, destroyed France. There is no security except that attained by constant labor. This is not theory. It is a basic law which will ultimately decide our future individually and as a nation, as it did that of France.

For long years we have acted on the belief that by arbitrarily shortening hours of work, penalizing ambition and profit, and curtailing productive enterprise, we could somehow, someday, lose ourselves in the distant blue haze of collective security. We have been gyrating in a vicious, futile circle, labor against capital, politician against business man, community against community, with professional "reformers" standing in the center of the circle like circus ringmasters cracking the whip of discontent. Witness the sitdown strike, the provocative, business-baiting extremist generalizing on scattered abuses by industry, the pathetic picture of thousands of communities and millions of individuals vying for "free" public money—each striving to get a share of the loot. Meanwhile the voters have had a curiously detached feeling toward annual government deficits running into billions of dollars.

These are the things that destroy nations, and make rich pasture for fifth columnists. They destroyed France. If we go back to work now, a nation of free men under a system of free enterprise, they will not destroy us—we will not be caught "out to lunch."

An Aviation Fake

The British magazine Aviation has printed an article asserting that the Germans and Italians are now using four types of bombers capable of attacking the Eastern seaboard of the United States. The Canal Zone, the magazine asserts, might be attacked from Dakar, 3,600 miles away on an air line.

With more favorable European bases, the fantasy continues, the Germans might be able to increase the weight of their bombs to 15,000 pounds. Why they have used nothing heavier than about a ton over England is not explained.

These statements are totally untrue. As this war has demonstrated repeatedly, there is a vast difference between flights for distance records, with every pound of the plane's carrying capacity devoted to its fuel load, and round trip attack carrying bombs. German attacks on England, it will be remembered, did not become serious until the channel ports were seized.

The Germans, American aviation authorities say, have one type of plane that could fly from Germany to New York. It might carry a ten pound bomb. It could not get home after it dropped it. There is, of course, the physical possibility of attack from an airplane carrier making a hit and run voyage into American waters. There is the same chance for an American carrier to launch such an attack on Germany. The Germans would be foolish to attack us as we would be to attack them in such circumstances, because it would mean the almost inevitable loss of the carrier for no military advantage.

The British people and the British publications, while they have frequently voiced their hope that the United States will join them in the war, have exhibited wise self-restraint about urging us to do so. An attempt to reverse those tactics, and particularly one based on the scare propaganda already tried by our own war mongers and thoroughly discredited, cannot fail to hurt Britain more than it helps her.

Stanton Wilson, the athlete, is dead, was sick and almost instantly killed by Harry Price during the performance of the musical extravaganza, "Mamzelles Champage" on the 20th of Madison Avenue, while a Florendora sextette was singing. Recipe for getting Extra Action out of thin air

IT'S a cinch to build an automobile engine that's either one thing or another.

You can go in for power — if you don't mind the gas consumption — or you can shoot for economy if stirring action doesn't matter.

What's tough is building a car with two good ideas under its bonnet — like this Buick FIREBALL straight-eight with Compound Carburetion.†

One idea is that it doesn't make sense to use a big, gas-gulping carburetor for your easy-going travel when you need only a little one.

The other is that you might as well have plenty-power on call when you can get it practically out of thin air!

So this Buick has two smaller carburetors instead of a single middling-size to big one.

One of them frugally handles all your low-power, round-the-town travel.

The other swings in any time you press down the gas-treadle — and gives more lift and wallop — by increasing the supply of air!

Results include: More horsepower — and gas economy running as high as 10% to 15% above previous Buicks, according to owners.

Interesting? Then better get prices and see how little it costs to get this extra action — plus extra room, extra size, extra comfort and extra style.

Available at slight extra cost on Buick Special models, standard on all other Series.

$930

Anna Turnock, Salem, Bride of Beloit Man

Miss Anna May Turnock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Turnock, Salem, became the bride of Robert Emil Pinzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Pinzel, Beloit, Wis., at a ceremony in the home of the bride's parents, June 19.

Officiating at the service was Elmer Barthel, a cousin of the bride.

The bride wore a brook of powder blue chiffon and carried a bouquet of roses. Her sister, Miss Ruth Turnock, who was bridesmaid, wore pink embroidered net and carried peonies.

Kenneth Liddle, Beloit, acted as best man.

The wedding march was played by Miss Mariana Spears.

Only immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were present at the ceremony, for which the home was decorated with pink and white roses and peonies, with a background of green fern.

MISS ANNA DROM IS HONORED AT SHOWER

The Hickory school community gave a miscellaneous shower for Miss Anna Drom on Tuesday evening, June 24, at the school house. She will become the bride of Chris Nielsen on Thursday, June 26. The groom to be is employed at the Chain O' Lakes Golf course and they will make their home at Grass Lake.

Miss Drom taught Hickory school from Sept. 1919 until June 1935. She will teach the Oakland school next year. About 60 old friends and pupils spent a pleasant evening together. Five hundred and airplane bingo were played by young and old. High scores in 500 went to Frank Kennedy, Waukegan and Mrs. Don Anderson of Antioch. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Paulsen received the consolation prizes. Miss Nielsen won first prize in bingo.

Miss Shirley Hollenbeck of Highland Park came the farthest distance and was one of Miss Drom's oldest pupils. Mrs. Andrew Pedersen of Waukegan was a member of the school board in 1910.

The decorations featured a watering can covered with blue and white tissue paper and hung on the wall. From the spout fell blue and white streamers that led to the presents placed on the teacher's desk bengal. After the refreshments were served, Miss Drom, assisted by her fiancee, opened the many useful and pretty gifts. Mrs. Curtis' Well was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bert Edwards and Mrs. Alfred Pedersen.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Is the Universe Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 22.

The Golden Text was, "The Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also" (Psalms 95:3, 4).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment; who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: Who laid the foundations of the earth: that it should not be removed for ever" (Psalms 104: 1, 2, 5).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The three great verities of Spirit, omnipotence, omniscience, omniflence, —Spirit possessing all power, filling all space, constituting all Science,—contradict forever the belief that matter can be actual. These eternal verities reveal primal existence as the radiant reality of God's creation, in which all that He has made is pronounced by His wisdom good" (p. 109).

We stopped in at a store the other day and saw this posted alongside the manager's desk:

Your Back Order
Keep your temper, Gentle Sir
Writes the manufacturer;
Though your goods are over due,
For a month—or maybe two,
We can't help it, please don't swear
Labor's scarce and looms are rare,
Can't get yarn, can't get dyes,
These are facts—...we tell no lies.

Harry's drafted, so is Bill.
All our work is now uphill.
So your order, we're afraid,
May be still a bit delayed.
Still, you'll get it, don't be vexed
May be this month, maybe next,
Keep on hoping, don't say die,
We'll fill your order, bye and bye.

With a month's practice behind them, croquet devotees are beginning to show rare form. They had a rousing game on the greens at Dick Moran's place, Highway 83, Tuesday evening . . . according to reports.

We see where a new building is being put up across from the Glenhaven farm house, but we haven't got our sleuths out yet to find out what it is.

While we're on the subject, we might as well let loose a squawk about how tired we're getting of seeing stories about the too, too noble Britishers, the too, too dastardly Deutchers, and the too, too tragic war (and we'll grant that it is, that, all right) being crammed ad-nauseum into all the magazines. We wasted 5¢ for sat eve post and 5¢ for Collier's the other week, and only got one and a half good stories out of the lot. So we bought one of the leading women's magazines, in search of a little sweetness and light somewhere, and after a couple of looks we threw that away, too. Sure the world's in kind of a mess. It's been in a mess before. But maybe we'll have sense enough to brace our heels, take a long breath, and straighten some of it out, anyway. Sure, all this war stuff has been heart-breaking folly, and heart-breaking tragedy, too, for all concerned in it. But that calls for sympathy, sorrow, and an attempt to alleviate the sufferings, rather than making a Roman holiday out of it. Sure, we don't feel that Nazism in practice has exactly brought the greatest happiness, or the greatest good, to the greatest number. But the quicker we learn to quit sticking our noses into the neighbor's business, except in a helpful and not too, nosey way, and start paying attention to our own instead, the better off we'll be. . . . And how about some half-way good magazine stories, that you can read without taking headache pills and soda after? How's about it, editors?

Continuing our educational gleanings among the influx of newspapers and magazines at the office, we observe where at Camp Bowie, Tex., Puddin', pet cat of Chaplain Ritchie Davis, will have to learn something about other cats if she is to continue to sleep in the chaplain's tent.

It seems that Puddin' encountered a polecat on one of her mighty prowl. Routed, she retreated to the safety of the chaplain's bed, which he happened to be occupying at the time.

—Musta bin a tactical error on somebody's part.

Seeing we're writing about the army like everybody else is, we might as well go ahead and pass on to you this editorial we saw:

Playful U. S. Gunners
Inquiring reader writes: "Since when has the United States taken to using German shells? Suggest you explain the picture on issue of June 12, lower right hand corner of Picture Page." He refers, we think to a swastika chalked on the shell placed ready for use in a 16-inch howitzer at Fort Story, Va.

The answer is that boys will be boys. Artillerymen often chalk derisive messages on shells, both in practice and actual warfare. The swastika meant that the shell in question figuratively was consigned to the Nazis. Chalked off of the swastika, but not legible in the engraving, was the phrase "with love and kisses."

Somebody was quoting to us the other day about Napoleon or somebody else saying "Happy is America, for she learns by the mistakes of Europe!"

We are hoping Napoleon wasn't too far wrong. You'd sure think after we got our fingers burnt once interfering in Europe's husband-and-wife quarrels, we'd learn to mind our own business next time, wouldn't you?

We see where the window frames of the apartment over Konig's restaurant are being given a new coat of paint . . . green instead of cream color. . . . Whereas the Wilton electric shop across the street, formerly green, is now cream color.

Add sights to see along the Main stem—that artificial pachoo with floppy ears, in Wilton's window. The youngsters like it. So do the grown-ups.

"World's Fair" Lamp Post is Now Ornament in Wilton Garden

When the "old World's Fair"—the Columbian Exposition of 1893 and the granddaddy of all World's Fairs—was in full swing, water from the famous Waukesha, Wis., mineral spring was piped all the way from Waukesha to Jackson Park in Chicago in closed wooden conduits, and sold there at 10 cents a glass.

Here and there along the course of the pipe line, which was under ground, were ornamental carbide lights.

The pipe line passed through Antioch, right along Main street, and one of the ornamental lights stood in front of Judge Thomas Wilton's opera house at the corner of Lake street, on the corner now occupied by the National Bank building.

When a sewer was put through along Main street, the old wooden pipe line was dug up . . . And the ornamental light post landed, finally, in the garden at the home of the judge's grandson, Robert Wilton, where it was greatly admired during the lawn party Mr. and Mrs. Wilton gave for officers of the Antioch Easter Star chapter and their wives or husbands Friday evening.

Jack Sibley, a Champion

Discussion of the souvenir recalled many anecdotes of World's Fair days. It was recollected by some of those present that it was John Sibley of Antioch who won the first prize in the saw-filing contest at the Fair. Back in the days when every man was an artisan, folks took quite a bit of pride in the work of their hands. In the saw-filing contest, which attracted quite a bit of attention, each man was judged upon the speed with which he could set up a saw and file it, and the perfection of the completed job.

Sibley is believed to be one of the oldest, if not the oldest, men still actively engaged in the carpentry trade. He is the senior partner in the construction firm of John E. Sibley and Son. Members of the firm include Nason E. Sibley, now supervising construction work at Wright Field, Dayton, O.

Local People Visit Fair

The World's Fair of 1893 created a stir in Antioch, Lake Villa, and other communities around the lake region. The Antioch News for June 29, 1893, reports the names of a number of citizens zons, including D. A. Williams, Uncle Rob Potter and Miss Frances Elliott as visiting the "World's Fair city." The issue of the 22nd says, "Hurry up that Hygeia water fountain. We are thirsty and long for a drink of the health giving beverage that flows all the way from Big Bend, Wis."

An editorial reveals that the Columbian Exposition, as well as the Century of Progress had its adverse critics—

"It is unfortunate for Chicago that so many malicious-minded people are just now attracted to that city. It is again unfortunate for her that there are so many newspaper men in the East ready to publish all evil reports that they hear about the Fair without first taking the time to investigate their source. Some self-appointed critic, whose chief stock in trade is his conceit and unremitting ignorance, visits the Fair for a day or two and is then prepared to write it up." The result is a scathing article in some eastern paper on the 'defects' of the Exposition.

Blasts Critics

"A visit of one or two days, or even one or two weeks spent in sightseeing at the Fair is entirely too short a time in which to form anything like a correct idea of it. In justice to the people who have labored night and day to prepare this grand spectacle for your edification do not criticize it for defects that certainly do not exist at Jackson Park and can only be found to exist in the diseased imagination of some evil minded person. Visit the Fair, see the magnificent panorama spread there before your view, and then return home and say a good word for it to your neighbors, for in justice you can say nothing else."

Many Antioch homes still contain souvenirs, in the shape of "World's Fair spoons," tooth pick holders, cushion covers, vases, and so on, brought back by visitors to the first World's Fair.

Correspondents to the Antioch News gave up in despair at the prospect of chronicling names of visitors to the fair. Quoth the Lake Villa correspondent: "World's Fair visitors from Lake Villa are so numerous that it is impossible to mention names."

RAILWAY
LABOR UNION DEMANDS
WOULD COST
900 Million Dollars
A YEAR

THE labor unions have made their demands upon the railways of the United States—and through the railways upon the PUBLIC. These demands are vastly larger in proportion than any they have ever made. The economical and efficient operation of the railways is vital to the nation's defense effort. Therefore, the Western Railways present to the public the following facts:

The labor unions representing engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen are demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages, amounting to 190 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay are the highest in history.

Other unions representing a greater number of railway employees are demanding wage increases ranging as high as 95 per cent—averaging 47 per cent—and amounting to 580 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay also are the highest in history.

Thus the wage increases being demanded by the labor unions amount to 770 million dollars a year, an average increase in excess of 41 per cent.

In addition, certain of these labor unions have demanded advances in their pay not included in the above figures, and more rules for the creation of unnecessary jobs.

The situation, then, is this: The total cost of complying with all the demands made would be approximately 900 million dollars a year!

The average weekly earnings of railway employees are now 15 per cent higher than in the peak year 1929, while the cost of living is 12 per cent less.

The demands of the railway labor unions are being made when the entire nation has just been asked to make a supreme effort for National Defense.

The railways cannot meet these demands without a great increase in the cost of transportation. They exceed by more than 700 million dollars the income that the railways had left after paying their annual expenses, taxes and charges in 1940.

The railways have a vitally important job before them. They need all their resources to continue adequately to serve you and contribute effectively toward the National Defense Program.

LESSONS FROM THE EARLY CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—I Corinthians 3:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT—For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.—I Corinthians 3:11.

Corinth in the time of Paul was a great city, as renowned for its commerce and culture as it was notorious for its vice and licentiousness. Here on his second missionary journey, Paul, with Silas and Timothy, spent 18 months winning many to Christ, in spite of the hostility of the Jews and the opposition of wicked men.

The church established in Corinth became the victim of a factional spirit which divided the loyalty of the people, hindering spiritual growth, destroying discipline, and resulting in low standards of life.

Paul found it necessary to write to the church regarding its difficulties, and we may well learn salutary lessons from his epistles.

I. A Lesson in Spirituality (vv. 1-4).

The further a man drifts from his place of spiritual power and usefulness, the more apt he is to try to keep up a "front," to take up any possible means of justification. The Corinthian church was divided into four groups, each one priding itself on being right. There was a Pauline party, overzealous for the founder of the church; an Apollonian party, bewitched by the oratory of Apollos; a Petrine party, which, claiming Peter as authority, was bent on mixing Jewish ideas with Christianity; and a Christ party, which, in antagonizing other elements, became itself a faction" (Moore). (See I Cor. 1:11-13.) All this activity was covering up the fact that they were having.

1. Milk Instead of Meat (vv. 1, 2). In other words they were spiritual babes when they should have been grown-ups. Milk is a marvelous food, but there is need of stronger food for virile men and women.

How true it is that many ministers must spoon-feed or bottle-feed a lot of spiritual babes who should long since have grown up to the place where they can feed themselves and help others.

2. Strife Instead of Stability (vv. 3, 4). God does not want Christians to be like other men. When will we learn that lesson? One of the sure ways to stifle spiritual growth in a church or in an individual life is to engage in strife. Let us heed Paul's admonition and put away our bickerings, that we may become strong in the Lord.

II. A Lesson on Service (vv. 5-15).

Here is helpful instruction to the minister regarding his calling. Brethren, let us judge ourselves in the light of it lest we hinder God's work by having the wrong attitude or encourage our people to think carelessly on this important subject.

1. The Minister (vv. 5-9). There is no higher or holier calling than that to the ministry. We should not forget that, and will not, but will rather glorify the calling; when we realize that "minister" (v. 5) means "servant," "attendant," or "waiter." So Paul and Apollos, men of highest office and highest gifts, were God's waiters, to bring forth the bread of life; His servants, to plant and cultivate His field; and His builders, laboring on His building. Ministers are only instruments in God's hands, but they should be clean, well-prepared, and submissive instruments in His hands.

2. The Manner (v. 10). The servant of God must take heed how he builds. If, like Paul, he has the privilege of laying the foundation, he must be careful that it is the true foundation and is properly laid. He who builds must also be careful that every stone he lays is fitly placed and well-chosen.

3. The Materials (vv. 11, 12). How important it is that the materials of a building be right. If that be true of a physical building, it is a thousand times more important in God's building.

First of all there is only one foundation which the true minister can lay—Jesus Christ. It is the only foundation upon which anyone can build a lasting life structure for time and for eternity.

But there are other materials in the building which need to be chosen with care. It will not do for the minister to substitute the wood, hay, and stubble of his wisdom or the philosophy of men for the gold, silver, and precious stones of God's Word. Terrifying shame and loss is all that can result from such folly, for remember there is a day of judgment coming.

4. The Manifestation (vv. 13-15). Flaming fire will one day reveal how we have built. The "wood-hay-and-stubble" preacher or teacher of God's Word may himself be saved, but, oh, the tragedy of coming into God's presence after years of service like a man who has escaped from a burning building empty-handed; saved from the fire himself, but ashamed that he has so built as to suffer loss.

A SKILLED DRIVER

By RAY W. SHERMAN
FORD GOOD DRIVERS LEAGUE

Driving at 30 miles an hour into another car coming from the opposite direction at the same speed is like driving a car off a three-story building.

KNOW THE LAWS OF PHYSICS

A thorough knowledge of the laws of physics comes ahead of actual skill in handling a car.

How many drivers realize as they turn a corner that two tons of weight want to keep on going in a straight line? Here are a few of the important things to remember about the laws of physics:

At 25 miles an hour a car has developed enough energy to roll over once. At 50 it has developed not twice but four times the energy—enough to roll over four times. At 75, it has developed not three times but nine times the energy—enough to roll over nine times.

At 25 miles an hour you can make a fairly sharp turn; at 50 only one-fourth as sharp; at 75 your turn can be only one-ninth as sharp as when you were going 25.

It requires 30 feet to brake a car going 20 miles an hour, and four times that, or 120 feet, to brake it at 40.
